An Educate Together second-level
school for KILKENNY

Educate
Together

Educate Together is an independent educational charity with 60 primary schools, one of which is in Kilkenny. The fastest growing patron body in Ireland, Educate Together has formally applied to open a second-level school in Kilkenny.

An Educate Together second-level school, guided by Educate Together's core principles, will be:

- Multi-denominational
- Co-educational
- Learner-centred
- Democratically run

An Educate Together second-level school will have a learner-centred approach, ensuring that all students can achieve their full academic and life-skill potential. It will implement the best teaching, learning and assessment methods so that students experience learning in connected and meaningful ways. Students will develop skills in creative and critical thinking, communication, teamwork, independent research and leadership. The school's ethical curriculum, based on values of equality, human rights and active citizenship, will include a comprehensive religious education programme.

The school will be open to all families who want an Educate Together second-level school for their children. We invite parents/guardians to submit expressions of interest by completing the form overleaf.
