

ADVISORY PANEL

Educate Together Second-level Project, Sept. 2010

This advisory panel has been assembled to provide a sounding board of “critical friends” as Educate Together policy on second-level education develops. We wish to ensure that the project proceeds in the most informed manner possible, with reference to all key stakeholders, academics and other interested parties in education, as well as with reference to current Irish and international research.

We are delighted that the following have accepted our invitation to participate:

Leanne Caulfield	President, Irish Secondary Students Union
Prof Sheelagh Drudy	Chair of Education, University College Dublin
Denise Charlton	Chief Executive Officer, Immigrant Council of Ireland
Ruth Gallagher	Human Rights Education Officer, Amnesty International Irish Section
Dr Jim Gleeson	Senior Lecturer, Dept of Education and Professional Studies, University of Limerick
Sandra Gowran	Director of Education Policy, GLEN - Gay and Lesbian Equality Network
Annette Honan	Education Consultant
Prof Aine Hyland	Former Professor of Education and Vice-President, University College Cork and founder member of the Dalkey School Project
Prof Kathleen Lynch	Professor of Equality Studies, University College Dublin
Dr Carmel Mulcahy	Head of Education Studies, Dublin City University
Barry O'Brien	Head of Government Affairs, IBM - IBEC representative
Dr Aidan Seery	Senior Lecturer, School of Education, Trinity College Dublin
Dr Emer Smyth	Research Professor, Economic and Social Research Institute
Nicholas Sweetman	Former Principal of Gorey Community School
Brendan Tangney	Co-Director of Centre for IT in Education in Trinity College Dublin
Rose Tully	National Parents Council, Post-primary
Dr Fionnuala Waldron	Head of School of Education, St Patrick's College, Drumcondra
Derek West	Arts Administrator for Creative Engagement [NAPD] and former Principal of Newpark Comprehensive School